

WELCOME TO THE NAPLES PLAYERS

This group of arts and education enthusiasts, key supporters, and philanthropists are at the center of all TNP happenings; bringing them closer to The Naples Players' work through invitations to intimate gatherings, tours, and programming all year long.

The Performing Arts Circle members represent major supporters of TNP's operations, including performances, education, and accessibility programs to thousands of adults and children throughout the region. Individuals in the Circle often find themselves together to celebrate big moments in the growth and development of The Naples Players and our service to the community.
